

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana privacy law has greatly reduced unwanted calls from 25-30 per week to 1 or two. Most of these calls were received during dinner or family time.